Confidentiality and Information Security is everyone’s responsibility

You are bound by the Data Protection Act and Computer Misuse Act

By entering this area you are also confirming and accepting your responsibilities regarding the Information Governance Policies and Information Security Policies set out by this Trust and/or other Health and Social Care organisations under your employment contract

Treating Confidential Information with Respect